Burial Slated For Togliatti

ROME, Aug. 23 (Reuters)—The West's largest Communist Party for 40 years, were originally scheduled to go to Italy two days ago, will be temporarily buried in Rome's Main Verano Cemetery, a Communist Party spokesman said tonight.

Togliatti's remains will be transferred to the non-Catholic "English Cemetery" pending approval by a "College of Foreign Ambassadors," he added.

The spokesman said that the remains of Togliatti, 71, who

Man Killed, 1 Charged After Feud

A dispute of several weeks duration between two Burlington neighbors broke into violence over the weekend killing one man dead of a gunshot wound and another in jail charged with murder.

Eugene Wallace, 37, of 303 Linsburg, died of a gunshot wound on arrival at St. Mary's Hospital Saturday afternoon of a bullet wound in the back. Roy Henry Moles, 46, of 205 Timbony Street, was charged with murder in the fracas and was jailed under $500 bond. His trial is set for Sept. 18.

According to Capt. Robert Lane, the eruption climaxed a growing feud between the two families. Two sons of the victim were reportedly involved in the dispute. Moles told police that he was standing in his yard when he noticed Wallace and his two sons, Jerry and Richard, coming toward him. He said he was in the house and got a rifle and when he came out the Wallaces were advancing toward him.

One of the boys had a gun, he said, and so did Wallace. Wallace fired first and then he said he fired and Wallace fell to the ground.

Richard Wallace told Captain Lane it was Moles who fired first.

Relatives gave conflicting versions of how the feud began. One version is that the dispute began about two weeks ago when Moles' wife and another boy beat Richard Wallace with a ball bat. The other version is that it began when John Wallace accused Moles' son of spinning his wheels and throwing gravel on his car.

Pollock's writing career began in 1945 when he resigned as director of advertising and publicity for United Artists Pictures. Among his picture credits: "The Jackie Robinson Story" and a version of "The Lady and the Tramp."

Warren Spain suffered his 12th defeat against six victories in the ninth with a double. Mayte won last evening's innings.

Colts Top Braves, 7-1

HOUSTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Don Larsen pitched his first complete game in more than five years as Houston whipped Milwaukee for the third straight time 7-1 Sunday night.

Larsen, now 24, gave up singles to Joe Torre and Gene Oliver in the second inning and a double to Denis Menke in the third, then retired 18 straight batters before Lee Maye opened the ninth with a double. Maye then scored on Eddie Mathews' single.

Bob Aspromonte and Walt Bond supported Larsen's masterpiece with bases-empty home runs while Eddie Kasko and Jerry Grote each knocked in two runs. Bond's homer, a 1-2, was his first since May 1961.

Kasko's run-scoring triple sent Kasko four runs in the Colts' eighth.

Woman Tells Of Ordeal

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 23 (AP)—She wandered, lost, for 2 1/2 days in the northern New Mexico mountains.

When the third came she couldn't find water, and sucked juice from a cactus plant and sucked the morning dew from the mountain grass. She ate a few yellow and green flowers.

The animal she saw were two chipmunks. There were dozens of insects, and on the third day the gnats pestered the cuts and scratches on her legs.

When Mrs. Harriet Coyle, 38, of San Antonio, Tex., was found Friday by an unidentified Explorer Scout, she said, "I couldn't believe it. I asked him 'Are you all looking for me?'"

She had been on a picnic and hunt hunting trip about 25 miles north of Santa Fe when she became separated from her husband, Capt. George Coyle of Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

"I kept trying to remember the distance from my car," she said, "but I just didn't know."

She was only about a city block from the highway when she was found by the Scout.
